Rovelyn Museum: Visitor Information (2022 Edition)

Sports memorabilia, galleries, and gift shop

1. About Rovelyn Museum

About. Rovelyn Museum is a sports museum that showcases uniforms, trophies, photographs, and memorabilia from Philippine and international sport. Visitors can also shop for sports-related artifacts, replicas, and collectibles at the museum gift shop or online.

History. The museum opened in 2009 in a converted warehouse and now cares for a permanent collection of about 4,200 objects. Its mission is to preserve the stories behind sport and to make them accessible to students, families, and researchers.

Collection highlights. Highlights of the permanent collection include a section of a hardwood court floor from the 1960s, a set of hand-painted fight posters from the 1970s, a torch from a regional relay, and more than 300 pairs of running spikes donated by athletes and their families.

Who we are. The museum is run by a small team of curators, educators, and conservators, supported by volunteers and by the members of the Rovelyn Circle.

2. Plan Your Visit

Admission. General admission is ₱300 for adults and ₱200 for students and senior citizens. Children below 7 years old enter free of charge. On the first Sunday of every month, admission is free for everyone.

Opening hours. The museum is open every day of the week, Monday through Sunday, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. The last entry is 45 minutes before closing. The museum is closed on December 25 and January 1.

Accessibility. All galleries on the ground floor are wheelchair accessible, and an elevator serves the second floor. Wheelchairs can be borrowed free of charge at the front desk.

Photography. Photography without flash is allowed in all galleries except the temporary exhibition. Tripods are not permitted.

Parking and cloakroom. The museum has 40 parking spaces, and parking is free for visitors during opening hours. Larger groups are encouraged to arrive by bus. Bags larger than a small backpack must be left at the cloakroom, which is free to use.

Visiting with children. A free activity trail for children aged 5 to 12 is available at the front desk. Strollers are welcome on the ground floor, and a quiet room is available for families on request.

Audio guides and Wi-Fi. Audio guides in English and Filipino can be borrowed for ₱100 at the front desk. Free Wi-Fi is available in the lobby and near the snack counter.

3. Permanent Galleries

Galleries. Four permanent galleries are open to visitors: the Hall of Basketball, Boxing Legends, the Olympic Journey, and the Track and Field Archive.

Hall of Basketball. The Hall of Basketball is on the ground floor. It displays game-worn jerseys, a section of a hardwood court floor, and a collection of match balls from regional leagues. A short film on the history of the sport in the Philippines plays every 30 minutes.

Hall of Basketball, continued. The gallery is organized by decade, from the first organized leagues to the present. Interactive screens let visitors compare uniform designs over time, and a replica half court lets visitors try a free throw.

Boxing Legends. Boxing Legends is on the ground floor. It displays training gloves, fight posters, and a full-size ring corner. Guided talks are held at 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM.

Olympic Journey. The Olympic Journey is on the second floor. It displays torches, athlete uniforms, and replica medals from several Games, together with photographs of the athletes who competed for the country.

Olympic Journey, continued. Audio stations in the gallery play recorded interviews with athletes and coaches. The displays follow the journey from local competition to the national team.

Track and Field Archive. The Track and Field Archive is on the second floor. It displays running spikes, starting blocks, and early stopwatches used to time races. Visitors can try a reaction-time exercise at the starting blocks station.

Track and Field Archive, continued. The archive also holds hand-timed race sheets from school meets and a small library of coaching manuals. Many of these objects were donated by retired coaches.

Temporary exhibition. The temporary gallery presents Underdogs and Upsets, a show about unexpected victories, until the end of the year.

4. The Collection and Research Library

Acquisitions. Objects enter the collection through donation, purchase, or long-term loan. Offers of donations are reviewed by the acquisitions committee, which meets four times a year. Please email the curatorial team before bringing any item to the museum.

Research Library. The Research Library holds about 6,000 books, programs, and press clippings. It is open to researchers by appointment on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Appointments should be requested at least five days in advance.

Conservation. The museum conserves fragile textiles and paper in its own workshop. Items on display are rotated regularly to protect them from light.

5. The Gift Shop

Products. The gift shop sells replica jerseys, commemorative pins, signed memorabilia, and vintage sports prints. It is open during the museum's opening hours.

Typical prices. Replica jerseys cost ₱1,200, commemorative pins cost ₱150, mini trophies cost ₱450, and books cost ₱600. Unframed vintage prints cost ₱850, and framed prints cost ₱1,600. Signed memorabilia ranges from ₱2,500 to ₱25,000 and always comes with a certificate of authenticity.

Featured lines. The Heritage jersey line reproduces uniforms from past decades in a cotton blend and comes in sizes XS to 3XL. Commemorative pins are released in limited runs of 500 pieces. Vintage prints are reproduced on archival paper from original photographs in the museum collection.

Signed memorabilia. Every signed item is authenticated by the museum's curators and comes with a numbered certificate. Signed items are shipped insured and require a signature on delivery.

Online orders. Orders are processed within 2 to 3 business days, and delivery within the Philippines takes 3 to 7 days. International shipping is not available at this time.

Shipping fees. Online orders ship free when the total is over ₱2,000. Smaller orders pay a flat delivery fee of ₱120.

Gift cards. Gift cards are sold in ₱500 and ₱1,000 amounts and are valid for 12 months from purchase.

6. Returns, Exchanges, and Damaged Items

Returns. Any gift shop item may be returned within 30 days of purchase for a full refund, whether or not it has been used.

Exchanges. Replica jerseys may be exchanged for another size within the return period, subject to stock.

Damaged items. If an online order arrives damaged, email photos to the gift shop within 48 hours of delivery. The shop will send a replacement or issue a refund.

Refunds. Refunds are issued to the original payment method within 7 to 10 business days.

7. Rovelyn Circle Membership

Membership. The Rovelyn Circle is the museum's membership program. An individual membership costs ₱1,500 per year, and a family membership costs ₱2,800 per year. A family membership covers two adults and up to three children.

How to join. Membership can be purchased online or at the front desk and runs for 12 months from the date of joining. Renewal reminders are sent by email 30 days before a membership expires.

Benefits. Members enjoy unlimited free admission and 5% off every gift shop purchase, in store and online. Membership may be cancelled at any time.

Extras. Members receive invitations to preview nights for new exhibitions and a 20% discount on school holiday workshops. Membership discounts cannot be combined with other promotions.

8. Group Visits and School Tours

Booking. Schools and groups may book guided tours. Group bookings require a minimum of 15 visitors.

Rates and tours. Group admission is ₱180 per student for school groups. One chaperone enters free for every 10 students. Guided tours last 60 or 90 minutes, and bookings must be made at least 14 days in advance.

Teachers. Teachers receive a free educator guide with every school booking.

9. Programs and Events

Coach's Corner. Coach's Corner is a monthly talk in which a coach or athlete shares stories with visitors. It is free with admission.

Workshops. School holiday workshops cost ₱400 per child and require registration. Registration for museum programs is done online or at the front desk.

Sports Heritage Night. The annual Sports Heritage Night is held once a year and is open to Rovelyn Circle members and invited guests. It features short talks, a preview of the following year's program, and a silent auction of donated items.

10. Supporting the Museum

Donations of money. Contributions of any amount are accepted at the front desk or online. An official receipt is issued for every donation.

Volunteering. Volunteers must be at least 18 years old and commit to 4 hours a week for 3 months. Applications are sent by email to the education team, and new volunteers receive a short orientation.

11. Frequently Asked Questions

Can I bring food or drinks?. Food and drinks are not allowed in the galleries. Water bottles with a cap are allowed.

Are pets allowed?. Only service animals are allowed in the museum.

Is there a place to eat?. The museum has a small snack counter near the entrance that sells drinks and light snacks.

What happens to lost items?. Lost and found items are kept for 30 days at the front desk.

How do I contact the museum?. Email info@rovelynmuseum.example or call (000) 555-0142 during opening hours.

Can I get a refund on admission?. Admission tickets are not refundable, but they may be rebooked once with at least 24 hours of notice.

Can I take photos in the gift shop?. Yes, photos are welcome in the gift shop, but please do not photograph other visitors without their permission.